

Agenda for the meeting on reducing vulnerability of fishing & fish farming communities to natural disasters and climate change
Doubletree Cariari by Hilton, San José, Costa Rica, 19th October 2010

8:30-9:00	Participants' registration
9:00-10:00	Opening session Introduction. Workshop agenda and format outputs. Participants' first round of introduction. Presentation of background paper Presentation on Human rights based approach.
10:00-10:20	Presentations from participants
10:20-11:00	Mainstreaming and implementing disaster risk management (DRM) and climate change adaptation (CC) strategies and programmes (Part i) Participants break in two sub groups to discuss the current situation, lessons learned and future directions in implementing DRM and CC strategies and programmes (including sector integration).
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-11:50	Presentations from participants
11:50-12:30	Mainstreaming and implementing DRM and CC strategies and programmes (part ii) Sub groups report findings to the plenary session for discussion.
12:30-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:20	Presentation from UNISDR on the Hyogo framework of Action (HFA) and link between DRM and CCA.
14:20-15:00	Discussions on challenges, opportunities and ways forward Participants break in two sub groups
15:00 -15:40	Participants report back in plenary session for further discussion.
15:40-16:10	Coffee break
16:10-16:15	Presentations from participants
16:15-17:15	Human-rights approach, disaster risk management and fisheries and aquaculture Participants are invited to discuss the application of human rights approach to fisheries and aquaculture humanitarian action.
17:15-18:00	Meeting wrap up: gaps, challenges, priorities and opportunities for collaboration Summary of findings and next step