CONNECTION TO AND FROM THE AIRPORT

The two main airports in Rome are Fiumicino Airport, which is the main international airport (also called Leonardo da Vinci Airport, 36 km west of Rome's city centre) and Ciampino Airport (16 km southeast of Rome's city centre, primarily used for charter and low-cost flights). Details on both airports are provided at <http://www.adr.it>.

Taxis:

If you decide to take a taxi from the airport, we advise you to take only the recognized white taxicabs (with a licence from the "Comune di Roma"; those with a licence from "Comune di Fiumicino" are more expensive). All official white taxi companies have a fixed fare for the transit between the airport and Rome city centre, usually displayed on the side of the taxi or in the backseat.
