Invitation to Open Library Day: 4th February 2013

Special issue NEW@FBL for the field

Did we miss anything? Articles in external journals and monographs in 2012

Table of contents service

The FAO Main Library has changed provider of the Tables of Contents (TOCs) service from SWETS to JournalTOCs (<http://www.journaltocs.hw.ac.uk/>). Our Library continues sending out TOCs to users in the Department; our service covers more than 180 fisheries and aquaculture electronic and print journals and provides access to the full text whenever possible. If you are interested in receiving any TOCs (either from the Library List or from the JournalTOCs list) in addition to those that you currently receive, please let us know.

Invitation to Open Library Day: 4th February 2013

As last year, FBL will celebrate its Open Library Day, where you are welcome to look at what the Department has published and where its staff have been publishing. During the day you are invited for a coffee, while from 16:00 o'clock onwards there is a small party with some snacks and drinks. An invitation will follow, but put the date in your agenda: Monday 4th February!

Special issue for the field

One of the next issues of NEW@FBL will be dedicated to our services to our colleagues in field projects and regional offices. If you have any questions or suggestions, please let us know.
