

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

COMMON OCEANS PROGRAM

© ISSF/ Jeff Miur

Tuna project

E-LEARNING COURSE ON MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES FOR SUSTAINABLE FISHERIES

global environment facility
INVESTING IN OUR PLANET

E-learning course on management procedures for sustainable fisheries

- ✓ Free and accessible
- ✓ Five courses with certification
- ✓ Features a virtual training adventure

For more, visit: harveststrategies.org

PARTNERSHIP FOR SUSTAINABILITY AND BIODIVERSITY IN THE OCEAN AREAS BEYOND NATIONAL JURISDICTION

The Tuna project is part of the Common Oceans Program, funded by the Global Environmental Facility (GEF), and bringing together FAO, the five tuna regional fisheries management organizations, intergovernmental organizations, the private sector, civil society and academia in promoting sustainable tuna fisheries and biodiversity conservation in areas beyond national jurisdiction.

CRAFT A VISION FOR A FISHERY

EVALUATE MANAGEMENT APPROACHES

IMPLEMENT A MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE

