

Side Event

THE ROLE OF NGOS IN INTERNATIONAL FORESTRY COOPERATION

Seeking of the roles of civic groups in international cooperation for the XV World Forestry Congress

Tuesday, 3 May 2022 | 12:30 - 14:00 | Hall E3, Coex

We will discuss about international forest cooperation led by NGOs.
As global interest in climate crisis response and carbon neutrality increases, the importance of international forestry cooperation is growing.
Accordingly, we present the direction for NGOs to move forward based on the experiences of experts who directly implemented international forestry cooperation.

TIME TABLE

Time	Contents	Speaker
12:30 ~ 12:40	Opening Speech	Hyojeong Lee E&S Consulting CEO
12:40 ~ 12:50	Welcome Speech	Jaehyun Kim Representative of the PFW
12:50 ~ 13:05	Theme 1. International Forestry Cooperation of NGO's	Yohan Lee Chairman of Korea REDD+ Association
13:05 ~ 13:20	Theme 2. The Role of NGO's in International Development: Establishment of Field Performance Models	Jongwoo Kim Head of a Campaign department in Green Asia
13:20 ~ 13:35	Theme 3. The Role of NGO's in Forest Cooperation Projects to Response to Climate Change	Taek Seoung Yun Plant Environmental Research Station Director of Suppro
13:35 ~ 13:50	Discussion	Panelists
13:50 ~ 14:00	Q&A / Closing Speech	Hyojeong Lee

PANELISTS

1. Garam Lee | Researcher of Forest Sociology Lab, Konkuk University
2. Jinkyung Choi | Team Leader of International Projects, Seeds
3. Jaeyung Lee | Team Leader of Regional Development, Good Neighbors