The listed providers are all part of our network and are suggested by Cigna Healthcare. However, we are not responsible for the availability of the services they offer, nor do we endorse, warrant, or guarantee their outcomes.

Members can choose which health professionals to see, where they want to undergo medical tests and which hospital or clinic they wish to be admitted. Over time, some providers may cease to be part of our network. Therefore, we advise members to contact their preferred healthcare professional, clinic or hospital by phone or online in advance to check they remain part of it.

Cigna Healthcare does not provide medical advice specific to individual members. We recommend that members contact a qualified physician for a diagnosis or to discuss any personal health concerns.
