CONFERENCE

Thirty-sixth Session

Rome, 18 - 23 November 2009

First Report of the Credentials Committee

1. The Credentials Committee of the Thirty-sixth Session of the Conference held two meetings on 6 and 12 November 2009, to examine the credentials received. The Committee elected Mrs. Daniela Rotondaro (San Marino), as its Chairperson, and Mrs. María Eulalia Jiménez de Mochi (El Salvador), as its Vice-Chairperson.
2. The Credentials Committee noted that its work would also be taken into account in the context of the Arrangements for the World Summit on Food Security (WSFS 2009/INF/5-Rev.1). The Committee noted further the content of Rule III of the General Rules of the Organization on “delegations and credentials”, as well as the practice and criteria followed by the Organization with respect to the acceptance of credentials, in accordance with the practice of the General Assembly of the United Nations on the matter.
3. The Credentials Committee reviewed the credentials or information received regarding the composition of delegations shown in attached lists A and B.
4. The Committee noted that it had received two sets of credentials and information on the composition of delegations of Madagascar submitted by His Excellency Ambassador Jean Pierre Razafy-Adriamihaingo and by, or on behalf of, His Excellency Andry Nirina Rajoelina, “Président de la Transition” of the Republic of Madagascar. The Committee noted that, by Resolution 396 (V) of 14 December 1950, the General Assembly had recommended to the Specialized Agencies that “whenever more than one authority claims to be the Government entitled to represent a Member State and this question becomes the subject of controversy”, the Specialized Agencies should adopt the same attitude as the General Assembly of the United Nations. The Committee was informed that, on the basis of this resolution, long standing consistent practice of referring to the position of the General Assembly had been followed by the Conference whenever more than one authority claimed to be the Government entitled to represent a Member. The Committee noted that FAO had received communications from the United Nations secretariat confirming that a delegation of President Andry Nirina Rajoelina had participated in the Sixty-third Session of the General Assembly and had been participating in the current Sixty-fourth Session of the General Assembly, as the representative of Madagascar.

5. In view of the above, the Committee recommended to the Conference that the credentials and information submitted by, or on behalf of, His Excellency Andry Nirina Rajoelina, “Président de la Transition” of the Republic of Madagascar be accepted and that his delegates be authorized to participate in the Thirty-sixth Session of the Conference, as the representatives of Madagascar.

6. The Committee also recalled that, through Resolution 63/301 of 30 June 2009, the General Assembly of the United Nations decided that no Government of Honduras should be recognized other than the Government of President José Manuel Zelaya Rosales. Subsequent guidance and instructions were issued by the United Nations secretariat to the whole system advising all Specialized Agencies, Programmes and Funds to allow participation and access to meetings only to those representatives from Honduras who could formally confirm that they were the duly authorized representatives of President Zelaya’s Government.

7. The Committee was informed that the secretariat had received a communication from the Permanent Representation of Honduras regarding the composition of the delegation to the Conference, without specifying whether the delegation represented the Government of President Zelaya. The secretariat had therefore sought clarification from the Representation on this issue but had not received a reply. The Committee requested the secretariat to urgently contact the Representation again on this point. In addition, the Committee instructed the secretariat to inform the Representation that, unless the requested confirmation was received, the delegation would not participate in either the World Summit on Food Security or the Thirty-sixth Session of the Conference.

8. The Committee recommended to the Conference that the credentials or information on the composition of delegations on both lists be accepted, on the understanding that formal credentials of delegations referred to in list B would be communicated by the Members concerned to the Director-General as soon as possible, and that all delegations be authorized to participate fully in the Conference session. The lists reflect the situation as of mid-day on 13 November 2009.

9. The Committee recommended to the Conference that the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters, following such research and inter-agency consultation as might be required, should review again procedures for further streamlining the treatment of credentials to the Conference.
